

Benefits of Walking

Increases leg muscle strength and mobility

Supports family and peer participation

Improves bone density and hip joint development

Develops problem-solving skills, independence and confidence

Improves cardiovascular fitness and digestion

Aids communication, cognition and psychological wellness

